

I benefit from satellite radio's weather and traffic. I live in Florida and if a hurricane took out the land based radio we would not have access to information. Satellite radio is a great benefit. Please do not stifle this technology.